They're Back

Among the signs of spring in Andover this year, is the return of construction crews to Elm Square. The work was resumed Monday morning with the ripping up of the Elm Street intersection, the placement of temporary metal mats to carry traffic, and some off and on rerouting through the intersection. The barrels, cement trucks, backhoes, etc. would appear to be a definite sign of more difficult days ahead for motorists and pedestrians until the work is completed.

Mrs. Poore Opposed

Computer Funding Would Assist Andover Students In New Age

By Sue Aucella Deacon

By approving a $150,000 appropriation for microcomputers, town meeting could help Andover's schoolchildren learn basic computer skills, provide teachers with a new teaching tool, and prepare students for their future in the computer age, the School Committee was told Tuesday night.

But one committee member said she could not support the request for that appropriation because she does not believe the teaching staff is fully prepared to use the computers — and because in a time of budget constraints, the requested appropriation is too large.

"I am in favor of microcomputer education for children in the town of Andover," committee member Susan Poore said. "But I am concerned about what appears to be a broad-brush approach. I do not want to fall prey to over-enthusiasm for computer hardware and software."

The committee voted to support Article 24 on the town meeting warrant — which includes the $150,000 computer funding request — on a three-one vote, with Poore opposed. (Robert Smith was absent.)

Michael Giammusso's motion also included accepting a report from Asst. Supt. Dr. Charles Mitsakos on the first phase of a three-phase plan to incorporate microcomputer education into the Andover school curriculum.

Funds for new school computers have been included in a $675,000 article for capital expenditures, which also includes $425,000 for an aerial ladder and pumper, and $100,000 for police and fire communications equipment.

Chairman Richard Neal said he would favor asking town meeting to act on each of those three requests separately, an approach the selectmen have also discussed. But according to Mitsakos, the Finance Committee has decided that it would be appropriate to consider all three requests for capital expenditures in one article.

Still, town meeting could move to vote on each item in the article separately, and Poore said she would "strongly suggest" that approach. If the computer appropriation is included, she said, "I cannot support this article — I will not support this article."

Mitsakos recommended that the schools acquire, at a cost of $148,800, 21 new microcomputers: one for each of seven major departments in the three secondary schools. The elementary schools already have enough hardware to meet the goals included in Phase One, the assistant superintendent said, with one microcomputer available for every 15 teachers at the elementary level.

In addition, four computer terminals would be located at media centers so students could use them during their free time. The eight computer labs currently offered at each junior high would be increased to 12 labs at each school. And programming and word processing equipment would be made available to the public through Community Services department courses.

The assistant superintendent listed six goals under Phase One: teaching basic computer operating skills in all 12 grades; offering computers to teachers as classroom teaching tools; offering a word processing lab to sophomores; adding four new computers labs at the two junior highs; increasing access to computers for elementary students; and providing access to the community through DCS courses.

In a written report, Mitsakos said the computer can be used as a teaching tool not

Soil Testing For Septic Systems Gets Underway

Everett F. Penney, Jr., director of Public Health, has announced the start of the soil testing period for 1983, as approved by the Board of Health.

All lot owners who plan to obtain building permits for lots located in Andover and plan to use subsurface sewage disposal (septic) systems must conduct two soil tests during the seasonal dates to obtain Board of Health permits, before applying for building permits.

The two tests include a deep observation hole and a percolation test. The first test examines soil types and records the maximum seasonal ground water elevation in the planned septic system area. This test may be conducted during the months of March or

April only; testing is not allowed at any other time of year in Andover, and results are valid for a two-year period. Lot owners who do not complete the deep hole tests by April 30 will not be eligible for building permits this year.

The percolation test measures the soil's absorptive capacity and porosity in the leach area, and can be conducted at any time between April 1 and Nov. 30.

All tests must be witnessed by an agent of the Andover Board of Health. "Projected building activity and requests for scheduling of these tests has been heavy this year," Penney says. "I would advise those persons contemplating building this year to call the Board of Health office immediately at 475-7820 to schedule those tests early."

Commencement Will Be June 6

Andover High School's commencement ceremonies will be held at 5 p.m. Monday, June 6, with a rain date of Tuesday, June 7.

AHS Principal Mary Athey Jennings told the School Committee Tuesday night that the new Everett J. Collins Auditorium will probably not be ready in time for graduation, so ceremonies will be held at the Eugene Lovely football field.

Because the school committee had requested that a weekend date be presented as an alternative to the traditional weekday date, Jennings also suggested Friday, June 3, with a rain date of Saturday, June 4.

However, the senior class would prefer to have graduation on a weekday. Student Council representatives told the committee, and the committee voted to honor their wishes.

Jennings said the June 3 or 4 date would be acceptable even if the schools have to call another snow day before winter finally bows out.

License Fees Are Increased

Fees for Andover auctioneer's licenses, both annual and one-day licenses, were increased last week for the first time in several years, with the selectmen's approval.

The fees have been increased from $15 to $50 for an annual license, and from $10 to $35 for a one-day license.

Town Clerk Elden Salter explains that the fees have been among the lowest license fees in town for some time, because they were set by state law. However, the state has now returned fee-setting authority to cities and towns.

Salter says the town has issued annual licenses to about 15 auctioneers, while requests for one-day licenses come before the selectmen at almost every meeting of the board.

Candidates Coffee To Be Held Saturday

Candidate's Coffee sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Andover with the cooperation of the Andover Savings Bank will be held this Saturday morning, March 26, between 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. This traditional event will give town voters an opportunity to meet informally those whose names will appear on the ballot the following Monday. Citizens are invited to visit the Andover Bank at 61 Main Street, meet the candidates, and express their concerns.

Election day is Monday, with polling hours from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the Dunn Gymnasium at the High School on Shawsheen Road. League members will again be directing voters to their proper precinct table. Since students will not be in the school on Monday more than ample parking will be available. There are three selectmen candidates with but two seats available. This is the one contest on the ballot.

Voters will choose two from: Gerald Silverman (incumbent) Kenneth Buck, and Charles Wesson, Jr. On School Committee both Richard Neal and Donald Robb are running for their second terms. The Andover Housing Authority candidates, Mary Jane Powell (5 year term), and Winston Blake (one year term) as well as Moderator, James Doherty are all unopposed.

The Voter's Guide, prepared by the Voters' Service/Citizen Information committee of the League will be published by the Lawrence Eagle Tribune this week as a public service. Each candidate's response to questions posed by the League will be helpful to voters in making an informed decision. Questions concerning voters service/citizen information may be addressed to acting chairperson Ann McGovern of 7 Hampton Lane, Andover.

League To Conduct Meeting On Stickers

"How to Lick Your Sticker Problem," an informational meeting concerning the new Massachusetts automobile inspection regulations, is being sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Andover, Citizen Information Committee, at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 29 at the Lawrence Savings Bank, 342 North Main Street (Shawsheen Square).

When do I go for inspection? Where do I go? What happens when I get there? are the questions foremost in car owner's minds as the new procedures begin on April 1. Resource persons for the evening event are Stephen Curtin of Shawsheen Plaza Sunoco and Brendan Foster of Rolling Green Service Center.

The League of Women Voters has held a position on air quality since 1971 and has lobbied since that time for air pollution controls on industrial production, on government installations, on fuels and on vehicles. It was noted that additional costs would be more than saved by less health care costs especially in pulmonary related diseases.

Attendees of the March 29 event will have the opportunity of viewing a demonstration of the new auto emission equipment at the Shawsheen Plaza Sunoco Station immediately following the question and answer portion of the evening's program.

Firearms Course Offered

Once again the Andover Sportsmen's Club will be sponsoring the NRA Home Firearms Responsibility Course at 7:30 p.m. April 20 and 21.

For further information and registration call the Andover Sportsmen's Club or mail to P.O. Box 255 Andover, MA 01810. All applicants must be 17 years of age or older.

Playground Programs Registering

The Andover Department of Community Services is accepting registrations for three of its summer playground programs. The playgrounds, which begin Monday, June 27, include a Tiny Tot Playground for 3-4 year olds; a Preschool Playground for 4½-6 year olds; and an All Day Playground for children who have completed grades K-6.

The Tiny Tot Playground (ages 3-4) will be held at the West Elementary School between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. Parents may register their children for either a five day (Mon.-Fri.) program, a (Monday, Wednesday, Friday) schedule or a two day (Tuesday, Thursday) schedule. Priority will be given to those signing up for the full week. Tiny Tots must be toilet trained. Children must be 3 years old by June 30, 1983; 2½ year old children who are toilet trained will be accepted on a space available basis. Close supervision will be provided (5:1) ratio.

The Preschool Playground (ages 4½-6), will be held at the Bancroft School Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. - 12 noon. Children must be age 4 by Jan. 1, 1983. Priority will be given to those signing up for a minimum of four weeks. A ratio of eight children to one staff member will be provided. Both the Tiny Tot and the Preschool Playground offer arts and crafts, music and movement, games, nature walks and storytelling as well as the opportunity to meet and learn how to play with a variety of children their own age. Children should bring a snack; a beverage will be provided.

The All-Day Playground (grades K-6 completed) will be held at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational School between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. Designed for children of working parents (though open to everyone) this program will provide a full day of activities. Unlike the Drop-In playground where children are permitted to come and go as they please, close supervision will be provided. (10:1 ratio). Activities will include such favorites as arts & crafts, daily swimming, and lessons, sports, and games. Additionally, a weekly trip or special event off the playground is planned. Lunch is not provided for the children, a daily beverage is provided. Priority will be given to those who sign up for four weeks or more. Transportation for this program will be available to and from the Technical School. Extended hours are available for the All Day Playground from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Parents may register their children for the entire eight week program or individual weeks throughout the summer at the DCS office in Shawsheen School. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The above playgrounds begin Monday, June 27 and end on Friday, Aug. 19. Enrollment is limited.

Registration for the Elementary Playground at Bancroft, Sanborn, West Elementary School and the Ballardvale playground will begin on Wednesday, June 15; watch this newspaper for further information.

Pellerin Named Worker Of Year

Arthur Pellerin of Andover was named Goodwill's Worker of the Year recently in festivities at the Windsor Mills Restaurant.

He was one of several Goodwill workers, as well as a handful of local corporations, honored at Merrimack Valley Goodwill Industries' annual dinner and meeting, which was attended by 275 friends, supporters, staff and handicapped workers.

The board of directors also elected officers and named two new members to the board.

Pellerin has been employed at Goodwill as a benchworker since 1976. A dependable employee who maintains an impressive attendance record, Pellerin was selected as Worker of the Year from a pool of highly qualified candidates.

Aid Group To Award Scholarship

Applications for the $1,000 college scholarship given by the Lawrence General Hospital's Aid Association are due April 11. The scholarship will go to a 1983 graduate of an area high school who has contributed at least 200 hours of volunteer service to the hospital. The winner will be announced Wednesday, May 4 at the Scholarship Tea.

Applicants don't have to be a current volunteer. In addition to service to the hospital, the selection is based on the student's scholastic record, SAT scores and a personal interview.

Application forms are available from Mary O'Brien, director of volunteer services, at Lawrence General. O'Brien lives in Salem, N.H. Applicants must also submit a copy of their high school transcript and SAT scores.

Last year's winner was Patricia Clark of North Andover who is now at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

"The scholarship is a way the Aid Association can recognize the student's service to the hospital and its patients," said Eliza Webster of Andover, president of the Aid Association.

"We also recognize financial assistance is becoming more difficult for students to get at the same time college costs are increasing."

Junior volunteers are between 14 and 18 years old. They will be assigned to specific responsibilities such as bed-making, delivering flowers, assisting the nursing staff and helping at the coffee counter in the hospital's Hospitality Shop.

"He's one of the best, most cooperative, most steady workers that we have," said Dolores Reed, Pellerin's vocational counselor at Goodwill. "He's very patient and pleasant and he'll perform any task that's presented to him, despite his visual impairment."

Honorable mentions include Eva Forget and Maria Sequeiras of Lowell, Patty Gauthier, Jeanene LeBon, Susan Raczk and Cheryl Ryan of Chelmsford and John Sliney of Pepperell.

Since 1920 Merrimack Valley Goodwill Industries has provided vocational rehabilitation services to handicapped men and women from throughout the Merrimack Valley and Southern New Hampshire. By helping the handicapped to learn skills and to obtain a measure of self-esteem and self-sufficiency, Goodwill's programs help the handicapped to live satisfying, independent and dignified lives within the community.

Last year, Goodwill placed 20 handicapped individuals in competitive employment, an increase of 122 percent over 1981. In addition, the agency's Industrial Services Department, which performs subcontract work for local industry, increased its billing by more than 30 percent. This increase resulted in an increase in the wages paid to handicapped workers of 38 percent over 1981.

Also honored were Ruth Fernberg of Lowell, named Goodwill's On-Site Worker of the Year; Judy Huard of Lowell, picked as the agency's Placement of the Year; and Phyllis Foster, named Goodwill's Employee of the Year.

Fernberg has been working at Wang Laboratories since June 1982, performing a variety of benchwork tasks related to the manufacture of word processing and computer equipment. Her production record is impressive and she is known for being cooperative and pleasant.

Honorable Mentions for On-Site Worker of the Year include Anne Griffin and Rose Pollino of Billerica, Charles Rollins of Lowell, Barbara Mullen of Townsend and Dennis Wilkins of Chelmsford.

Flea Mart

A spring flea market, sponsored by the senior class of Merrimack College, will be held Sunday, April 10, in the main parking area on the North Andover campus, bordering Rte. 114.

Video Cassettes To Be Available At Library

Starting March 24, Memorial Hall Library will offer patrons the opportunity to borrow one-half inch VHS Video-cassettes of over fifty popular films. The cassettes were selected as representative of the best in a particular genre and include such titles as "Cabaret," "Ordinary People," "Zorba the Greek," "Same Time Next Year," and "The Black Stallion."

There will be a charge for this new service — $5 per cassette for three days, with a $5 over due fine for each additional day. A few restrictions also apply such as borrowers must be over 18 years of age, must have a MHL library card, and must sign a responsibility form at the time of check out.

A flyer, which includes the rules and regulations, and a listing of all titles, which will be updated periodically, are now available at the Circulation Desk. The circulation staff will be happy to handle patron requests and provide further information.

Pre-School Publication Available

Memorial Hall Library announces that the revised edition of the Guide to Day Care Centers, Nursery Schools and After-School Programs in Greater Lawrence has been printed and free copies are now available in the Children's Room and the main reading room of the Library. This is the fourth edition of this popular guidebook which aids parents in selecting the best pre-school or after-school program for their children.

Three new features in this edition include 1) a subject index to assist in identifying specific information about a school, 2) a selective bibliography to aid in evaluating child care providers, and 3) the inclusion of a selection of after-school programs. Of special interest in this year's edition are the illustrations which were contributed by Mary Bartow's first grade class at South School.

Further information on nursery schools, day care centers, etc. may be obtained from, 'Answers,' the community information service of Memorial Hall Library, Andover. Staff member Nan Becker compiled the directory with the aid of volunteer Audrey Price.

Cubs Spend Weekend On Battleship

Cubs, Den Leaders and volunteer parents of Cub Scout Pack 72, got to spend a weekend on board the battleship, the U.S.S. Massachusetts at Battleship Cove in Fall River.

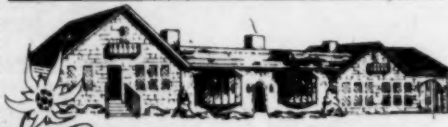

On March 12 and 13, 29 boys and their adult chaperones were afforded the opportunity to climb aboard the ship for an overnight visit and become more familiar with the workings of such a vessel. While there, they visited an old-time riverboat museum, saw films about the sea and got to do some exploring on their own.

In order to qualify the boys first had to complete two civic service projects. Sleeping in three-tier bunk birthing areas, was a highlight to this trip. When not in their assigned quarters, they were allowed to walk about freely through the entire ship, giving themselves a chance to use their imaginations.

Heading up this crew was Cub Master, Dan Dennett.

Tuition Increases At College

Merrimack College in North Andover will increase tuition $400 and room and board $150 for the 1983-84 academic year, it was announced by President Rev. John E. Deegan, O.S.A.

Tuition will be $5,150 and room and board rates will be $3,150 at the Augustinian college next year, representing a 7.1 percent overall increase.

Commenting on the increase, President Deegan noted that "the 7.1 percent figure represents the lowest percentage increase in tuition and room and board since the 1975-76 academic year." He also pointed out that the college's increase is below the increases of most four-year independent institutions in the New England area.

"Through good management and energy conservation, the college has maintained and will continue to maintain costs wherever possible," remarked the Merrimack president.

According to President Deegan, the major reasons for the increase include "salary adjustments for faculty, staff and administration, the absence of sufficient federal student aid, expenses for deferred maintenance projects which will be undertaken next year and costs related to the upgrading of the college's computer system and the modernization of science and engineering laboratories."

He explained that in addition to maintaining costs, the college is "aggressively pursuing funds" which will be utilized to provide scholarships and financial assistance to students.

Photography Exhibit At College

The Northern Essex Community College Foundation is planning an exhibition of the works of internationally acclaimed photographer Richard Yee of North Andover. The one-man show will be held in the library at Northern Essex from April 11 to April 30. The show will consist of nearly 100 examples of Yee's works, primarily landscapes many of which were taken in such places as China and Alaska, but also many reflecting the beauty of our own region. All of the photographs on exhibit will be available for sale, and the proceeds will benefit the Northern Essex Community College Foundation.

Mr. Yee has received numerous awards for his work. He was the first place winner for three consecutive years, 1955, 1956 and 1957, of the Boston Globe annual photo contest, and in 1959, he took first prize in the All Army Photo Contest. Mr. Yee was the winner of the Latimer award presented by the Boston Camera Club in 1963, 1964 and 1965. He is a fellow of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain and was ranked second exhibitor of the world in 1968 by the Photographic Society of America. Mr. Yee's works are included in the permanent collections of the Seattle Museum of Fine Art and the Newport marine Museum in Virginia.

Mr. Yee started taking pictures in his native China as a young boy. He came to this country in 1952, at the age of 16, to join his parents who were the owners of the New China Restaurant on Main Street in Haverhill. He was drafted into the United States Army, and after his discharge in 1960, he opened the China Blossom Restaurant in North Andover, which he continues to operate

Health Career Days Set

Lawrence General Hospital Aid Association will hold its annual Health Careers' Day for high school juniors Wednesday, April 6.

The program will begin at 8:45 a.m. and conclude at 1 p.m. Administration, dietary, nursing, radiology and volunteer departments presentations will be scheduled on the program. Departments to be visited on tours are business office, data processing, electroencephalography, engineering, laboratory medicine, medical records, pharmacy, physical therapy and respiratory therapy. The students will also have the opportunity to learn about EMTs and paramedics from Mark Tremblay of Merrimack Valley Emergency Medical Services. An emergency vehicle will be parked outside the Russell Lobby and available for the students on tour to visit.

"Lawrence General is like a town with many dissimilar but integrated parts. Departments employing carpenters and housekeepers are as important to the efficient running of the hospital as departments with pharmacists, laboratory technicians, physical therapists and nurses. Underlying all of these positions is a certain excitement of being part of the hospital community," explained Gretchen Leone, Careers' Day chairperson.

Nursing Home Guide To Be Made Available

When you need to make a decision about nursing homes in the area, where do you turn to find out about costs and kinds of available services? The

West Parish Nursery Registering

West Parish Nursery School has taken several field trips since Christmas vacation. The group went to Bruin Hill Farm in North Andover for a sleigh ride. On a later outing the preschoolers toured Lawrence General Hospital. In March the children visited the Andover police and fire stations. The outing ended with an ice cream. Future field trips include a train ride from Andover to Haverhill and a bus outing to the new Children's Museum in Acton.

West Parish Nursery School is now accepting applications for the 1983-84 school year. For more information concerning the school contact Donna Gray, chairman of the board of trustees, 8 Deerberry Lane.

Grange To Hear About Sign Language

North Andover Grange will meet Tuesday evening, April 5, at 8 p.m. in the Grange Hall. The program for the evening will focus on "deaf awareness," and will highlight the Grange's programs to aid the hearing impaired.

Nancy Wentworth, master, and Betty Hughes, secretary, will demonstrate sign language. The members will be instructed in the "Sign Language Alphabet" and will learn a song in sign language.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting under the direction of the O'Melia and the Lord families.

Final plans will be made for the annual "Barn Sale" to be held at the Grange Hall on April 9.

Miss Ellen Hayes is the chairman. The membership is presently being contacted, and donations of old and new items, baked goods, handicrafts and plants would be appreciated. Contact the chairman to make arrangements for the committee to pick up any donations that cannot be delivered to the Hall.

individual or family who wishes to make an informed nursing home decision is confronted with multiple sources of information. Obtaining a listing of homes with addresses, phone numbers, and levels of care can be time-consuming. The problems of having adequate data and of choosing a facility best suited to meet needs are particularly acute when placement must be made quickly, which is often the case. Most people do not plan ahead, and the average consumer doesn't know what questions to ask to make a positive placement. Those charged with the responsibility for selecting a nursing home for a loved one must, at a time of personal emotional distress, participate in an important decision-making process without the necessary tools.

A number of people from local churches and community organizations have joined together to produce a comprehensive source of information on Merrimack Valley nursing homes. Volunteers from local churches, Leagues of Women Voters, and Retired Senior Volunteer Program are currently interviewing administrators and staff in nursing homes. The information will be included along with sections on how to choose a home, differences between Medicaid and Medicare, explanations on levels of care, and alternatives to nursing home care. There will be charts showing the services available in each home. The Consumer Guide To Merrimack Valley Nursing Homes will then be distributed to churches, temples, service agencies, hospital placement services, councils on aging, Visiting Nurse, etc.

Two Andover women are giving leadership to this project, Grace Nicoll and Joyce Robinson. Other local volunteers visiting nursing homes for this publication are: Martha Ballou, Irene Jones, Evelyn Parker, Mildred Westfall, Diane Angus, Mary Margaret Rhys, Deborah Aikman, Mary Duffy, Hannah Darling, Bonnie Estabrooks, Ruthe Sharpe, Lillian Seymout, Cathy Suyematsu, Gwen Smith, Barbara Loomer, Sheila Kachen, and Sandi White.

Spring Tradition

Extending Spring greetings has become an Andover tradition with the Olde Village Flower Shop. Annually, the florists distribute 2,000 daffodils to downtown visitors on the first day of Spring and last Saturday was no exception, despite some rainy weather. In top photo, Cheryl Zwynemburg hands out flowers in front of the Post Office, while in lower photo, four-year-old Abigail Schmidt, with her April Showers umbrella, shyly prepares to accept a flower.

In old Japan it was believed that eating ginseng root would help ensure long life.

Per Pupil Cost Down

The 1982 per pupil cost for Massachusetts public schools increased at the slowest rate since 1969 when the State Department of Education first published the statistics, according to an agency report released recently. The rate of increase for fiscal year 1982 over fiscal year 1981 was 2/10 of 1 percent. The 1981 state average was $2,436 and for 1982 was $2,442. Almost half of the 351 cities and towns experienced reductions in their per pupil costs, with 20 percent of those having to cut more than 5 percent of their per pupil costs. In 1981 only 7 percent of Massachusetts cities and towns decreased their per pupil costs. About 25 percent of the rest either remained the same or went up less than 5 percent, while about 25 percent increased their per pupil costs by more than 5 percent.

Almost 73 percent of the 351 Massachusetts cities and towns reduced their public school expenditures in 1982, the first year of Proposition

2½. But the statewide per pupil costs remained about the same because public schools suffered a 5 percent enrollment decline in 1982. Per pupil costs are determined by dividing school operating costs by number of students.

Commissioner of Education John H. Lawson explained that these statistics show the results of the first year of the implementation of Proposition 2½. "These statistics demonstrate in actual numbers the disproportionate and pernicious effect 2½ had on public schools." He added, "Proposition 2½ did not hit every community the same way; it did its most damage on those who could ill afford it."

"In language, clarity is everything." — Confucius.

Self-Defense For Women

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. will hold a Self-Defense Workshop on Saturday, March 26, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon for women, 16 and older, to prepare them to face an emergency situation. As rape becomes more of a problem, women are feeling a real need to protect themselves. The class will emphasize safety at home, safety in walking and driving and defense of self and small children. Basic types of weaponless fighting will be taught.

The course will be taught by Cheryle Morenz of Albany, N.Y., a high school physical education teacher. She was the Outreach Camping Director at Camp Lawrence and is involved with a rape crisis center in New York. She works in a preventative program with self-defense workshops and counsels rape victims.

'The Re'Action' Coming To Andover

The Andover Baptist Church, in cooperation with the Free Church and South Church, Andover, will present "The Re'Action" in concert at the Andover Baptist Church, 7 Central St., Andover, on Saturday, March 26, at 7 p.m.

"The Re'Action" is a senior high school singing group of 47 young people from the Metropolitan Chapel of Buffalo, N.Y.

Richard Wulf, youth pastor at the Andover Baptist Church, is a 1973 alumnus of the group and was instrumental in bringing them to Andover for this spring concert.

Wulf recalls the experiences he enjoyed during his high school years of participation and travel with the group. Taking part in the program is a time of great Christian fellowship strengthening the young peoples' faith and giving them countless opportunities to witness for Jesus to those who hear their concerts and, in a very special way, to the many families with whom they stay when they are on tour.

The group will present a one-hour concert featuring the best of the glorious music of the church in a tribute to the faith of the Christian heritage. The traditional hymns, blended with contemporary arrangements, will provide an enjoyable and dynamic presentation of the Gospel message.

The concert uses various methods to deliver the message in a way that will leave a lasting impression. They include dramatic sketches, comedy, solos, duets, testimonies, multi-media slides and the involvement of the audience in singing and responding.

First Aid

Courses

Choate-Symmes Health Services, Inc., is offering two series of an eight-hour Standard First Aid Course. A class will be held at the Symmes Hospital Division in Arlington on Tuesdays, April 12 and 19, from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. in the Residence Building and at the Choate Hospital Division in Woburn on Thursdays April 14 and 21, from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. in the conference room.

Instruction will be given on the proper procedures for mouth to mouth breathing, control of severe bleeding, first aid for broken bones and choking.

To Observe Passion Sunday

The Ballard Vale United Church, (United Methodist, United Church of Christ), will mark Palm/Passion Sunday at its 10:30 a.m. service this Sunday. The elementary aged children will meet in Shaw Hall for a special Palm Sunday program at 10 a.m. and prepare for their processional into the sanctuary. The service will close with a dramatic reading of the Passion narrative according to the Gospel of Luke with Rick Fox and the pastor, The Rev. Gary S. Cornell, doing the reading. The church choir under the direction of James Syers, will sing as the Anthem: "The Palms."

In the evening, the youth confirmation class and the junior high fellowship will show the award winning film, "The Parable," and the public is invited to join with the youth in seeing and discussing this film. The time for this program is at 7 p.m.

Planning Service

The annual Ecumenical Good Friday Service will be held at St. Augustine's Church this year on Friday, April 1 at 12 noon. Planning the service are from, left, Rev. Dennis Kohl, pastor Faith Lutheran Church; Rev. Jack Daniel, pastor, Free Christian Church who will deliver the sermon and Rev. Richard O'Leary, OSA, pastor of St. Augustine's.

GodspellCast To Be At Service

'Godspell,' the rollicking and vibrant portrayal of the passion of Christ, based on the Gospel of Matthew will be shared in part at South Church, Sunday March 27.

Several cast members of the Boston production of 'Godspell,' now at the Charles Playhouse, will be guests of South Church this Palm Sunday. They will share the popular tunes such as 'Day By Day' within the worship. The service of worship is at 10:30 a.m. The church is located at 41 Central St., Andover.

Visiting South Church will be Lani Marrella, Sam Scalomoni and others. Their appearance grew out of a conversation with Dr. Westy Egmont, senior pastor of the congregation, after members of the cast appeared on "Show of Faith," which he hosts for WBZ-TV, Channel 4.

"Godspell is a wonderful beginning to Passion week," notes Dr. Egmont. "It emphasizes the contemporary nature of Christ and the struggle of faithful living."

Guests are welcome.

Union Service At Temple

Lowell; Rabbi Terry Bard of Congregation Shalom, Chelmsford.

The sermon, highlighting this event, will be given by Rabbi Sanford Seltzer, Director of Planning and Research for the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and formerly the Rabbinical Advisor to the Northeast Council.

A reception and Oneg Shabbat will follow the services to which all congregants of the participating Temples are invited.

Two Clusters Approved

Two new cluster subdivisions won the Planning Board's approval Tuesday night, while an extension was granted on another request for approval, and plans for a fourth subdivision were withdrawn.

Community Development and Planning Director Jonathan Gilmore said yesterday the planners approved definitive plans for "Sherborne Park", and definitive plans and a special permit to cluster for "Raven's Bluff."

Developers William and Ruth Urquhart of Gray Road plan to build 20 houses on two cul-de-sacs in Sherborne Park, with one roadway off Salem Street and another off Gray Road. The 25-acre cluster development would include eight acres of open space, about half of it wetlands.

According to Gilmore, the planners made it a condition of their approval that the developers must present town officials with engineering reports on their plans to control soil erosion and sedimentation at the subdivision, and protect water supplies.

Raven's Bluff will be built off River

Road, southwest of Boutwell Road, by developer Harlan Newton. The 15-acre site will include 16 clustered lots and five acres of open space abutting A.V.I.S. land.

The planners had a March 29 deadline for acting on definitive plans for the "Golden Oaks" subdivision, proposed by George Chongris, but the developer requested an extension until April 13, Gilmore said.

The developer has proposed a 33-lot development for a 40-acre site off High Plain Road, near Penni Lane. The development would include ten acres of open space, six conventional-sized lots, and 27 clustered lots.

The board had also scheduled a public hearing on preliminary plans for a proposed subdivision off Gould Road, "Country Cove," but those plans have been withdrawn.

The director explained that the 40-lot development could pose two major problems that need to be worked out: potential traffic troubles on Gould Road, and potential damage to nearby well fields in North Reading.

'Talley's Folley'

"Talley's Folly" will be presented on the stage of the Merrimack Regional Theatre, Broadway and Wilder Streets, Lowell, March 18 through April 3.

Portnow was featured in NBC's "A Rage of Angels" with Ken Howard and Jaclyn Smith. He will soon be seen in the CBS made-for-television movie "Trackdown" opposite George Segal.

Promise Of A Balanced Budget Produces A Thawing Effect

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The School Committee voted to defrost its month-old freeze on the current school budget this week, with assurances from the superintendent that the fiscal year will end with a balanced budget.

The committee voted to put a freeze on spending last month when it appeared there might be a major deficit in the fiscal 1983 budget. Chairman Richard Neal said increases in the cost of placing students in programs in other school districts as required by law created a sizeable deficit, anticipated at $100,000.

But Supt. Kenneth Seifert told the committee Tuesday night the overall deficit is now estimated at $16,000, and he said that by freezing some accounts, the administration can end up with a balanced budget by June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

He presented the committee with a detailed spending plan for both the salary and expense portions of the current budget. And Seifert urged the committee to end their freeze, because purchase orders are "stacking up" throughout the school system.

Donald Robb said it would be "pointless to labor over" the administration's proposed spending plan, explaining that $16,000 amounted to "less than one-tenth of one percent" of the FY83 $13 million budget. Some cost overruns could not be avoided, Robb said, adding that the projected deficit is no cause for panic.

Neal agreed that overall the schools have operated with "little deviation" from the budget, and indicated that the proposed spending plan was acceptable in principal. But the chairman said he was concerned about Seifert's recommendation to freeze textbook purchases.

The superintendent explained that that freeze was suggested because books could easily be ordered later, when the deficit has been corrected, while a freeze on other goods and services would be more difficult to undo.

Committee member Susan Poore voted against lifting the budget freeze and accepting the administration's spending plan on a three-one vote (Robert Smith was absent).

Poore said the administration should not plan to end up with a balanced budget, but with a surplus. She pointed out that last year, a budget surplus enabled the schools to save on this year's budget by ordering some supplies and equipment early.

But Neal said aiming for a surplus could create new problems — and another deficit next year. He recommended staying with the budget the committee prepared last year, and accepting the administration's spending plan.

Michael Giammusso, who moved to accept Seifert's proposal and lift the freeze, requested monthly updates on spending from the administration between now and June 30.

Raytheon Microelectronics Center

Anderson DeBartolo's Plan, Inc.

Architect's Rendering Of Raytheon Addition

R.I. Firm To Build Addition

Raytheon company has named Marshall Contractors, Inc. of Rumford, R.I., to construct its advanced microelectronics facility. The 80,000-square-foot building will be located on a 21-acre site adjacent to the company's West Andover operation. Construction is expected to be completed by June 1984.

Marshall Contractors, Inc., is a privately owned general contracting and construction management firm serving the commercial and industrial new construction market.

The firm specializes in the construction of clean room and process facilities for the semiconductor industry and is one of New England's largest contractors. The Andover facility will be Marshall Contractors' fourth major microelectronics project.

The facility, designed by Anderson, DeBartolo, Pan, Inc., of Tucson, Arizona, will accommodate Raytheon's internal needs for the design, development and production of very high speed integrated circuits (VHSIC). It is primarily a two-level structure, basement and first floor, with grade-level access to each. The first floor contains a 20,000-square-foot Class 100 clean room, along with manufacturing support functions, administrative offices and cafeteria.

The primary architectural system includes an insulated metal panel skin (finished on both sides), tinted insulated glass, insulated skylights and an elastomeric ballasted roof.

The building's clean room will be initially equipped for the fabrication of bulk CMOS and bipolar devices employing geometries down to 1.25 microns.

Devices produced in this facility will be used as signal and data processors, logic units and computing modules. They will be used throughout the company to increase the performance of a wide range of advanced equipment and systems that Raytheon designs and produces for government applications. Eventually, they will also be used in the company's commercial electronic products.

The company said it is presently working on the frontiers of this technology. By accelerating development of its own proprietary devices, Raytheon expects to insure its continued leadership position in advanced electronics. The company already produces semiconductor devices at its Semiconductor Division in Mountain View, Calif.

These VHSIC-class circuits will initially combine the equivalent of 25,000 transistors on a single device three and one-half tenths of an inch square. Continued development is expected to push that five-fold, to 100,000 transistors.

Approximately 100 scientists, engineers and skilled technicians will staff the new advanced plant. Many of these are already employed by the company. It is expected that 50 to 100 new positions will be created after the new facility opens.

Campaign Culminates Monday

Election seasons probably don't come much quieter than the one Andover has seen this spring: The annual quest for town office comes quietly to a close Monday, when voters will go to the polls to settle one contest.

The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. at Andover High School's Dunn Gymnasium. Town Clerk Elden Salter reminds the town's 15,822 registered voters that there will be plenty of parking directly in front of the gym.

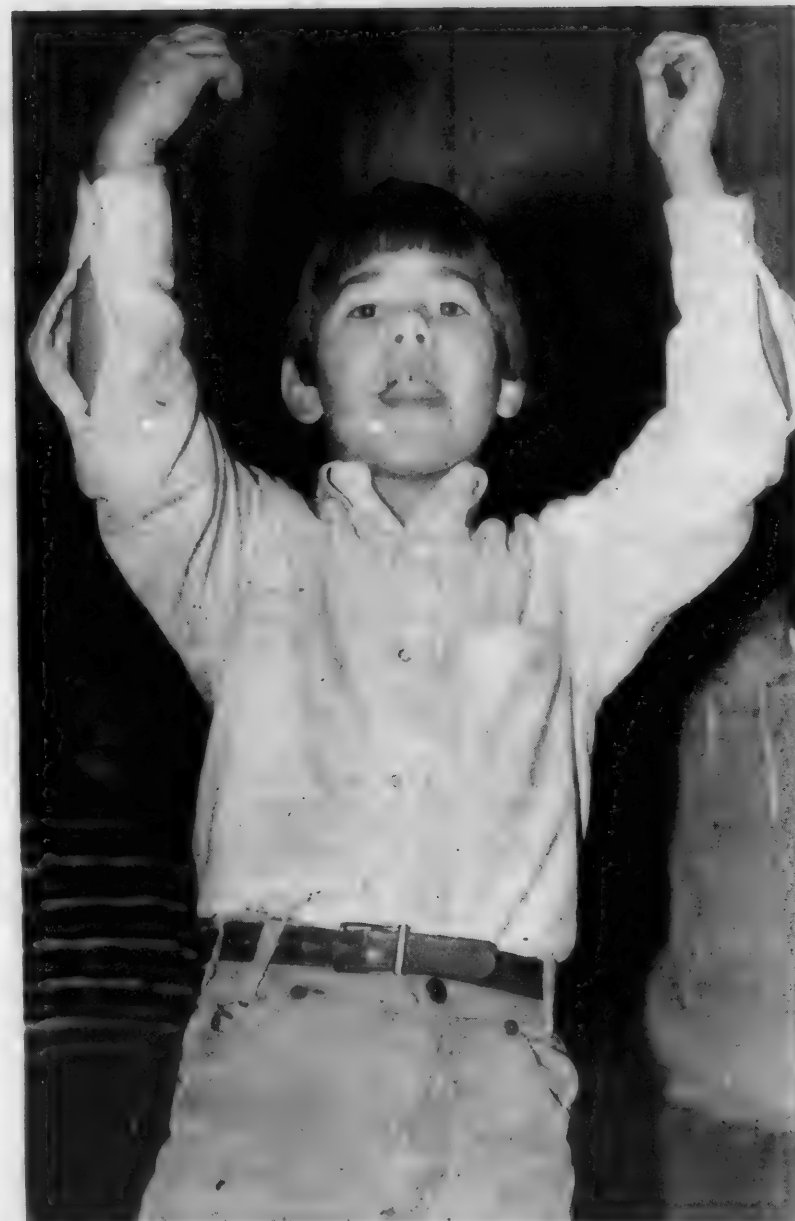

All public schools will be closed for the day.

Voters will have only one contest to decide: a three-way race for two seats on the Board of Selectmen.

Incumbent Gerald Silverman of Dufton Road is seeking a second three-year term on the board, while Charles Wesson, Jr. of York Street and Kenneth Buck of Summer Street are vying for the vacancy created by the retirement of Edward Harris. Buck was a candidate for selectman last year; Wesson, a former Finance Committee chairman, is making his first bid for elective office.

On the School Committee, incumbents Richard Neal of Twin Brook Circle, committee chairman, and Donald Robb of Tobey Lane are running for re-election to three-years terms with no competition.

And Town Moderator James Doherty is running for re-election to a one-year term — as in past years, unopposed.

Sanborn Presents Musical Travelogue

Over 100 Sanborn School students from kindergarten through the sixth grade will perform in their original production "Look Out World - Here We Come." The musical is sponsored by the Sanborn PTO and directed by Jo DeVelis with piano accompaniment by Chick Puglis and drum accompaniment by Sanborn student David Sharrow. The show is a musical journey through Ireland, Italy, Austria, the South Seas, and back home again. It will be performed on Friday, March 25 at 7:30 p.m. at the West Junior High Auditorium. Tickets will be available at the door. Spring Freshet Heavy and constant rains of the past few weeks caused the Shawsheen River to rise slightly, but hardly a danger as it has been sometimes in the past. While its course is a little more rapid and foamy as seen here in its passage under North Main Street enroute to its confluence with the overflowing Merrimack in North Andover, it has been little more than a Spring freshet this time. The Shawsheen has threatened the Riverina Road pumping station in the past, but there were no problems as of midweek as the river's height began to ebb.

The Election

Andover's annual town election will take place Monday in an atmosphere of apathy seldom seen in the community.

While there is constant controversy in the town regarding municipal issues, this is the first year in recent memory that the voters will be faced with only a single contest on the ballot.

Except for the three men seeking the two three-year terms on the Board of Selectmen, all other offices will find incumbents returning unchallenged.

Fortunately, there has been interest in that single race, with the candidates conducting their campaigns and culminating with the Candidates Coffee at the Andover Savings Bank Saturday morning. It is anticipated that the other candidates will also be on hand to meet the voters, despite their insured returned to office on Monday.

It seems strange that throughout the year there is a constant dialogue regarding various municipal issues, particularly in the area of schools.

In more recent weeks there has been the controversy regarding the dropping of the traditional school program next year. This particular educational program has been a constant source of discussion as to value and continued operation since its introduction to the system several years ago.

There have been other issues fostering discussion in the school department this past year. But, when the time has come to offer service to the community and lend input to decision-making, there is no interest shown.

The same can be said of the general government area, where there have been a number of issues, including major construction projects, during the past year. But no interest shown at election time.

And, while the attitude is an unfortunate one, it should not be reason to forget about going to the polls on Monday to support those who have offered their services to the community.

They have campaigned.

They have shown they are willing to serve and continue to be a part of assisting in the decision-making process in Andover.

Through a good voter turnout on Monday between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. at the Dunn Gymnasium, Andover High School, Andover voters can abate to a degree a reputation of apathy Andover is bound to gain, if such interest in municipal government in the town continues.

Time Needed

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

One has to wonder what exactly is going on at Town Hall. why do we have town officials negotiating deals with developers to give away town property? Who authorized, or even asked, them to do this?

Item: We were told the junior high wing was unsalvagable, so we agreed to a lot of new school construction. Then, after we were told we needed a new Town Hall, suddenly the school was beautiful! We had only to give it away for private development and we could lease it back as a new Town Hall.

Item: The Town Manager proposed we swap the strategically located lot behind the soon-to-be-vacated Town Hall for an abandoned supermarket lot on the periphery. Then, he came on strongly to say, if we did not accept the deal exactly as he laid it out, we would have to put in extra money as well.

Now, let's face it. Whoever controls that lot behind the Town Hall can influence the ultimate disposition of Town Hall and the price we receive. There is the possibility of a very valuable development of that entire parcel, including the Town Hall, and we should not be suckered into giving the Town Hall lot away because we would then be unable to get appropriate bids for the entire property.

Item: We put a new addition on the library only about 15 years ago. It is a very nice library. It is frequently busy, but never overcrowded. Now, in the face of declining school enrollment and closings of schools, someone again wants to "give away" the library to local developers who will double its size and lease it back to us for only half a million a year. That, by the way, is a rather high yield to the developer for a 3.5 million dollar investment with a net lease. Furthermore, under private development, there would be no clerk of works overseeing the town's interests.

These deals are too smooth, too well thought out and prepared and are presented almost as "faits accomplis." All we have to do is raise our hands at the town meeting and we'll get all these gifts.

Something is not right here. We need a full discussion of these matters, and there is not time to do it before this town meeting, which all parties also obviously know. It is time to put a stop to all this nonsensical capital spending right now, before our taxes have to be increased to pay for them.

Major Debt Undertaking

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

Once again Andover taxpayers are being asked to provide money without sufficient background facts. Why must Andover be coerced into a major debt undertaking because of the excuse, expediency? Granted $1.2 million is available, but the situation for Andover's proposed parking garage will require another two million of Andover taxpayer money. The Town Manager needs the approval first, and then the facts will be provided. This is not Yankee thrift, nor even common sense. Why is Town Meeting boxed in, putting the cost before the horse?

Opposes Garage

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

Has Andover's reputation for affluence become an impediment to rational thinking? I am confident that history will record woefully few individuals, companies or towns having become wealthy by entering into business deals blindfolded. Yet, Andover voters are being asked to accept a three + million dollar expenditure — and to suspend existing zoning law restrictions — to permit the construction of a parking garage, all without benefit of any details as to cost, feasibility or design. It would greatly surprise me if Bartlett Realty entered into their purchase of the Purity Supreme property with as amorphous a financial picture as the citizenry has been provided by the town officials.

It appears to matter little that Andover residents, when asked in a town-financed survey, expressed disapproval of a parking garage by an overwhelming margin. To anticipate that we will be satisfied with the assurance that the Town Manager and the Board of Selectmen "would do nothing that wasn't for the good of the town" is paternalism of the worst kind.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Proposed gas-price hike has merits -- and enemiesBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON — American motorists are smiling again. Every time they drive up to the gas pump for a refill, it seems as if the price of gasoline has dropped another penny or two. The OPEC oil gougers have dropped their prices and seem to be in total disarray. Happy days are here again.

But there is a cloud on the horizon. The chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, Sen. Pete Domenici, R-N.M., has a scheme that would drive gasoline prices right back up again.

The proposal appears noxious at first glance, but it has some merits.

Domenici wants to slap an import tax of $10 on every barrel of oil brought into this country. His staff figures this would add as much as 24 cents a gallon to the retail price of gasoline.

Why does Domenici want us to pay more for gasoline? First, he estimates the $10-a-barrel tax would bring in $20 billion a year, which could be applied to the budget deficit.

By keeping the price of oil up, it would also encourage Americans to conserve. Indeed, Domenici thinks the import fee would drive the last nail into OPEC's coffin.

Domenici has sounded out the experts about his plan. The president's economic advisers secretly favor it. The Treasury Department is studying it. And the Senate Budget Committee is preparing a report on the idea.

But there is some heavy-weight opposition to the import-fee idea. The big oil companies don't like the idea at all. Just a few days ago, a group of powerful oil lobbyists trotted up to Capitol Hill for a closed-door session with Domenici.

The senator did not buckle under the pressure, and will continue to push his scheme. Perhaps you should enjoy low gas prices while you can.

CASE STILL OPEN: The Environmental Protection Agency's troubles haven't ended with the departure of Administrator Anne Burford and other high officials. Congressional Democrats have smelled smoke, and they're still looking for a fire that will give the Reagan administration a hotfoot.

For example, Rep. Mike Synar, D-Okla., has asked the FBI to conduct a criminal investigation of the EPA's general counsel, Robert Perry. Synar wants to know whether Perry broke any law by taking part in meetings with Mrs. Burford and Denver attorney James Sanderson.

Sanderson is already involved in some conflict-of-interest investigations. He was an EPA consultant and a top adviser to Burford. At the same time, he represented companies that had matters pending before the agency.

Sanderson has always denied any conflict of interest. He says he kept a "wall" between his EPA duties and his private legal business.

But there is evidence which suggests otherwise. In fact, our sources say that Burford's downfall was due to her Sanderson connection. They say she could have survived the other charges against her, but her close ties with Sanderson were too much.

Synar thinks Perry, the EPA's top lawyer, should have done something about Sanderson's conflict of interest. "Mr. Perry knew of Mr. Sanderson's conflicts," said Synar.

Yet the general counsel did nothing, and the congressman wants to know why.

INTERIOR CLEANUP: Washington politicians have a habit of sticking their feet in their mouths one minute, then scrambling the next to explain what they "actually" meant to say. Interior Secretary James Watt has recently been practicing this routine.

Watt angered American Indians by suggesting that their reservations were failed attempts at socialism. Then he tried to diffuse the outrage his remarks caused among Indian leaders.

We've seen an internal memo on the subject which was sent to the White House by a Watt aide. The misunderstanding, the document alleges, was the fault of the press, but the situation was being corrected.

What exactly were Interior officials doing to clean up Watt's mess? According to the memo, videotapes of "positive" footage of Watt had been strung together and shown to Indian leaders. Agency officials were also contacting editors across the country to explain what Watt had been trying to say.

Unfortunately, the taxpayers were the ones who footed the bill for all the backroom maneuvering. While government officials were busy covering for Watt, they were not doing their own jobs.

A PLAGUE AT ENERGY? Federal auditors have reported that Department of Energy employees are taking more sick leave than bureaucrats at other federal agencies. The additional time off costs the taxpayers $2.8 million a year. The auditors warned that many of the DOE workers may be abusing their sick-leave privileges. Nearly one-fifth of the employees surveyed took an average of 33 days of sick leave annually.

Kitchen Design

David A. Clement, designer

Cornell University conducted a study, in the early 1950's, which showed that a kitchen's efficiency depends on the location of its work areas. The "work triangle" is described by the location of the sink, stove and refrigerator. The efficient kitchen connects these points in such a way as to minimize the amount of travel between them during food preparation. To analyze your present kitchen's efficiency, try preparing a cup of tea. Such preparation involves going back and forth from the cupboard, stove, sink and refrigerator. If you must walk a "mile" to prepare a cup of tea, perhaps it is time to consult a kitchen designer about creating an efficient kitchen.

All-Stars Face Highs And Lows

By Rick Harrison

The Andover All-Stars traveling basketball teams battled through a busy and exciting weekend of tournament action, combining to play seven games in three days at the Wakefield, New Bedford and Methuen Invitational tournaments.

It was 72 hours of highs and lows, frustrating and courageous efforts, as Andover emerged with a 3-4 record and became embroiled in four games that were decided by four or fewer points.

In action at the Methuen Invitational, the Andover All-Stars seventh grade crew rocked Wakefield 55-32 in opening round action before dropping a heartbreaking 40-47 decision to the North Andover Boosters Club in the quarterfinals.

The long trip to New Bedford brought little satisfaction as the Andover All-Stars seventh and eighth grade squad dropped a 40-32 verdict to the Wareham Recreation All-Stars in the quarterfinals.

That same Andover team rebounded the following afternoon, however, pulling out a dramatic 51-50 triumph over the tough Everett Rats in the first round of the Wakefield Tournament.

The undermanned Andover All-Stars ninth grade contingent also played the Everett Rats, giving that club all it could handle before falling 50-46.

The Andover seventh graders handled Beverly 49-41 in the first round at Wakefield, but fell to Peabody 41-39 in the quarterfinals.

Methuen Tournament

John Perry scored the first nine points of the game, Andover raced to a 13-2 lead and the locals were never headed enroute to their 55-32 win over Wakefield which as missing one key player.

Wakefield trimmed the deficit to 23-16 at halftime and trailed only 31-22 after three quarters, but Perry and Mike Lane led a late Andover surge that produced a 24-10 fourth period run.

Perry led the Andover attack with 23 points, Lane contributed 13, Kevin Henderson 6, Matt Gibson 6, Bill O'Brien 4 and Mark Russell 2.

Henderson, Lane, Perry, O'Brien, Russell and Dave Vickers were all strong off the boards, while Scott Wallace chipped in a solid all-around performance.

Andover engaged in a seesaw battle with the North Andover Boosters with the winners erasing a three-point (47-44) deficit in the final minute to pull out the victory 48-47.

NA held a slim 8-7 lead after one period, Andover gained a 26-22 edge at halftime and the lead changed hands numerous times in the second half before the Boosters rallied.

Perry and Lane paced the Andover All-Stars attack with 22 and 12 points, respectively, while other strong efforts were contributed by Rick Lafond, Kevin Henderson, Bill O'Brien, Mark Russell, Scott Wallace and Dave Vickers.

New Bedford Tournament

The two-hour ride may have taken some of the fight from the Andover seventh and eighth grade crew, which had only three players score points in the 40-32 setback to Wareham Recreation.

The locals jumped ahead 4-0 early, fell behind 20-10 at halftime, utilized a full-court zone press to climb back into a 23-23 tie, but then went down in a blaze of late-game turnovers.

Errant passes and cold shooting plagued the Andover club down the stretch, while Wareham also shot well from the free throw line.

John Perry led all marksmen with 16 points, Kurt Burzlaff added 8 and Chris Colsia 6.

Burzlaff was also strong off the boards, while hustling performances were turned in by Mike Lane, Nick Coon, Chris Concemi and Paul Caron.

Wakefield Tournament

Andover, 51-50

The Andover All-Stars, who battled to the championship finals in the Wakefield seventh grade division last year before bowing to talented Quincy (59-49), stunned the traditionally tough Everett Rats with this gutsy come-from-behind victory.

Everett had things all its own way at the start, bolting to a 14-2 first-quarter lead and maintaining a 10-point (29-19) advantage at halftime.

Andover began to get itself untracked in the second period as John Perry netted nine points, Kurt Burzlaff added four and the winners showed some free throw prowess by hitting 7-of-8 in the stanza.

Burzlaff and Perry combined for 10 Andover points in the third quarter as the lead was whittled down to eight at 37-29.

Some hustling man-to-man defense, along with the clutch shooting of Chris Colsia, Chris Concemi, Burzlaff and Perry enabled Andover to outscore Everett 22-13 in the final quarter.

The final minute saw the lead change hands three times.

Concemi buried a clutch 15-footer to bring Andover within one point, and with 11 seconds to play Colsia dropped in a rebound which proved to be the winning basket.

Everett had two final chances in the closing five seconds but the swarming Andover defense forced a bad shot and then a Rats' player missed the first shot during a 1-and-1 foul situation with 0:03 to play.

Perry finished the contest with 22 points, several key steals and five assists, while Burzlaff was immense with 12 points, a dozen rebounds and three blocked shots.

Colsia added 9 points, seven of them in the pivotal last period, and pulled down a number of key rebounds. He was 5-for-6 at the foul line.

Concemi pocketed five points, all in the fourth quarter, produced several steals and added a key blocked shot.

Chris Poor wished a pair of free throws and, along with Perry, was instrumental in breaking the Everett full-court press.

Nick Coon notched a free throw, Rich Bourdelais ripped down a few rebounds and Mike Lane and Rick Lafond also played well.

Steve Redgate, a key member of the team, was forced to the sidelines early in the contest with a leg injury.

The Andover All-Stars had a productive night at the free throw line, hitting 19-of-31 foul shots.

Everett, 50-46

Although they were beaten, the Andover All-Stars ninth grade team showed a great deal of poise and character in a determined comeback effort against the Everett Rats.

The slightly taller, bulkier and surprisingly quick Everett team caught Andover off guard at the start, racing to a 9-0 lead and holding a 13-5 edge after one period.

The locals, missing Beau Jones (hand injury) and reduced to just seven players, employed a tenacious man-to-man defense over the last three quarters. It eventually took its toll, however, and it was a tired Andover club that was forced to foul in the late stages.

A balanced attack led by Steve Gemmell, Doug Rotondi, Scott Wilkins and Chris Bartley sparked a 21-13 second-period surge that tied the game 26-26 at halftime.

Wilkins' ball-hawking defense and quick drives to the hoop ignited a 12-8 third-quarter run that gave Andover a 38-34 lead.

In the final period Everett outscored Andover 16-8, thanks to an 8-for-12 performance at the foul line. Andover, on the other hand, did not go to the charity stripe once the entire second half.

Wilkins, Rotondi and Bartley finished the game with 12 points apiece for Andover, Gemmell contributed 8 and Nick Lembo 2.

Rotondi also blocked four shots and was strong off the boards, while Gemmell and Lembo helped out underneath.

Wilkins and Bartley both produced numerous steals.

Leo Gravell (three steals) and Larry Aiello were other standouts for the Andover

All-Stars, whose manpower shortage proved fatal.

It was, however, one of the most courageous efforts in tournament play by an Andover All-Stars team.

All-Stars

Andover, 49-41

Kevin Henderson poured through 20 points as the Andover seventh graders raced to a quick 12-2 advantage against Beverly, and the locals were never seriously challenged the rest of the way in their opener at the Wakefield Fieldhouse.

All nine Andover players participated in the scoring with Mark Russell chipping in 11 points, Scott Wallace 5, Joe Massaro 4, Chris Lane 3, Dave Vickers 2, Chris Eggert 2, Pat Kelley a free throw and Craig Costanzo a free throw.

Henderson, Russell and Massaro controlled the boards for Andover, which played without talented guard Matt Gibson (ill).

Andover came up just short in its quarterfinal struggle against Peabody, bowing 41-39 after enjoying an eight-point lead late in the first half.

Peabody rallied to tie the game by intermission, then scored the first six points of the second half to take a lead it never relinquished.

The Andover All-Stars challenged in the fourth quarter, trimming a nine-point deficit to just two, but time ran out on the locals' rally.

Matt Gibson and Henderson paced the Andover offense with 17 and 16 points, respectively, Henderson swishing a 20-foot bomb in the dying seconds to keep the locals' slim hopes alive.

Others contributing to the offense were Massaro, Russell and Eggert.

Wallace, Vickers, Lane, Matt Perry, Kelley and Costanzo also played well.

This Weekend

The Andover seventh and eighth graders move to the Wakefield quarterfinals tomorrow night, facing Wayland, while the 12-and-under crew journeys to Gardner for the annual Mt. Wachusett Community College Invitational Tournament (won twice by Andover).

The Andover-North Andover YMCA gymnastics team (Class IV) recently competed in the Mass. State YMCA Gymnastics Championships at Salem State College. Claudia Catalano, Kerry Bradshaw, Melissa Tatro, Tricia Dawson, Bridget Murphy and Lori Taylor, representing the Class IV division, gave a fine performance as they competed against 12 teams from throughout Massachusetts for individual and team recognition.

Dawson received a medal for her excellent performance on the beam which scored third place with an 8.4. Bradshaw can attribute her all-around team high score to her performances on the vault (8.125), floor (8.4) and beam (8.0). Taylor's (5.4) score on the uneven bars topped all others in the seven-year-old category. An 8.0 on uneven bars by Tatro and the contributions of Murphy and Catalano combined to make the meet an exciting and successful event.

South A Finishes Undefeated

South A finished undefeated by trimming St. Augustine's D, 30-15. St. Robert's E clinched second place by handling Ballardvale B, 29-16, while South B upset St. Robert's C, 24-23, to highlight final action in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate Blue Division held last week at the West Junior High and South School gyms.

In other games Temple Emanuel overpowered St. Augustine's C, 38-8. St. Robert's D toppled West Parish B, 41-20, and Ballardvale A stopped St. Robert's F, 28-17.

The top teams in the Intermediate Blue Division were South A at 10-0, St. Robert's E at 8-2, Ballardvale A at 8-3, St. Robert's D at 7-3, St. Robert's F at 7-4, Temple Emanuel at 6-4 and Ballardvale B at 6-4.

Individual division scoring honors went to Matt Perry of St. Robert's E with 160 points, Chris Eggert of South A was runner-up with 131, and Steve Napolitano was third with 85.

Rounding out the high scorers were Andy Meckel of Ballardvale A at 80 points, Kaios Ryan of Christ B 73, Mike Mooney of Ballardvale A 71, Mark Shwetz of St. Robert's F 70 and Scott Clementi of St. Robert's C at 70.

South A, 30-15

A. J. Boutin poured in 10 points to lead an undermanned South A team past St. Augustine's D.

South A grabbed an 8-2 first period lead, increased it to 18-6 at halftime, and then the teams played fairly evenly over the second half.

Steve Napolitano had 8 points for the victors, Dana Orlando 6, Bill Korahmas 4, Chris Parker 2, and Steve Flanders also played well.

South A was missing several players including Chris Eggert, Jim Hendry, Leo Sorrie and Brett Cox.

Chris Allard led St. Augustine's D with 5 points, Peter Reming and Jim LeCreta had 4 points apiece, while Adam Brown netted a Signal basket.

Paul Lembo, Mike Giammuso and Ian Elliot were other St. A's standouts.

St. Robert's E, 29-16

St. Robert's E held a slim 6-4 first quarter lead, increased it to 16-8 at halftime, and 25-12 after three periods, and then coasted home against Ballardvale B.

Matt Perry, who hit double figures for all ten games, paced the SRE attack with 13 points, Chris Landers and Jeff Landry chipped in 6 points apiece, while Mike Cincotta and Matt Moynihan scored solo fieldgoals.

Martine Kelley and Mike Kelley were defensive stalwarts for St. Robert's E.

Devon Arsenault and Steve Hanley shared scoring honors for Ballardvale B with 4 points apiece.

Tossing in single baskets were Steve Smith, Jason Blandini, Alan Hanley and Bobby Nutter.

John Peroni, Mike Kalil and Bartley Parker also played well for Ballardvale B.

South B, 24-23

Hardluck South B waited until the last game of the season to register their initial win as they rallied in the final quarter to edge St. Robert's C in a seat squirm.

The South B team had previously lost three of their games, including one in overtime, by three or less points.

St. Robert's C inched ahead 12-10 after one quarter, stretched the lead to 16-11 at halftime, and 21-15 after three periods, but the victors led by A. J. Boucher went on a 9-2 run in the final stanza to eke out the victory.

Billy Batchelder was game-high marksman for South B with 11 points, Boucher had 9, including five in the pivotal fourth period, while Kyle Hovious had a single bucket. Andrew Hager was credited with two points in the fourth quarter when an SRC player inadvertently scored at the wrong basket.

Bryan Boucher, Dave Greenwood and Erik Tupper also turned in strong efforts for South B.

Patrick Hayes spearheaded the St. Robert's C offense with 10 points, Mike Hein and Tim Martin added 4 points apiece, Scott Clementi netted 3 and Chris Jarek 2.

Derek Weitz, David Ward, Corey Taylor and David Carriere also played well for SRC.

Temple Emanuel, 38-8

Stephen Gack's eight first-quarter points shot Temple Emanuel into a quick 14-4 first period lead, and the winners were never seriously threatened thereafter enroute to the decision over a depleted St. Augustine's C team.

Gack finished the contest with 12 points, Bob Label chipped in 10, while Mike Englehart and Mark Leinson pocketed 8 each. (Continued on Page 46)

Gerry Tallman

Lead GDA Wrestlers

The New England Independent School League Wrestling Team Champion, Governor Dummer Academy, was well represented with Andover students this year.

Winning varsity letters at the recent Winter Sports Banquet were Phil Appleton, Dave Hoffman, Gerry Tallman and Brian O'Dell.

Although Appleton and Hoffman were unable to wrestle for most of the season due to injuries, O'Dell and Tallman brought home five trophies between them and both were elected co-captains for next year.

Tallman was GDA's only undefeated dual-meet wrestler with an 11-0 record and a 20-2 overall record. Tallman took a first in the nine-team Holiday Tourney, fourth in the 17-team Graves-Kelsey Tourney and a first in the New England ISL Tourney at MIT in March with more than 30 schools represented.

Wrestling at 115 lbs. for the regular season, Tallman was New England Champion at 110 lbs.

O'Dell's dual-meet record was 7-3-1, with an overall record of 15-6-1. Wrestling at 167 lbs., he placed first in the Holiday Tourney and third in the Graves-Kelsey Tourney.

Appleton is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Appleton of Sagamore Drive; Hoffman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Joseph Hoffman of Hidden Way; O'Dell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. O'Dell of Wildwood Road; and Tallman is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Carter B. Tallman of Farrwood Drive.

St. Robert's D, 41-20

St. Robert's D placed eight players in the scoring column as it gained a victory over West Parish B.

SRD grabbed a 10-2

first quarter lead, extended it to 23-12 by half-time, and closed West B out with a 12-4 third period charge.

Ed Sheehan led the balanced offense of the victors with 10 points, George Willard and Brett Hammond added 8 points apiece, Scott Friese 4, Steven Knight 4, Eric Hammond 3, Paul Salafia 2 and John Mattola 2.

Ballardvale A, 28-17

Fast closing Ballardvale A finished its season on a high note by defeating St. Robert's F to capture its sixth win in a row.

Ballardvale A held slim leads of 5-2, 14-10 and 19-15 at the first three checkpoints, but broke things open in the fourth period, outscoring SRF by a 9-2 margin.

Andy Meckel took game scoring honors for the victors with 11 points, including six in the fourth quarter, Angel Baez added 6, Mike Mooney 4, Kim Lowe 2, Jim Ward 2, Tony Rivera 2

PeeWee A Andover 2 Everett 2

Andover and Everett faced off in Danvers and played a solid hockey game which ended in a tie. First and second periods were played well by both teams. David Sopp, Johnny Gilmartin, Tommy Tormey and Patrick Breen, on defense, kept Everett at bay and James Berberian, in net for Andover, stopped some difficult shots and kept Andover in the game. Everett scored the first goal with three minutes left in the second period when they got a rebound by Andover's downed goalie. At the end of two, everett led 1-0.

The third period action was fast as each team tried to get the advantage. Andover tied it up within 30 seconds of the period's opening when Tormey broke into Everett's zone and got a shot off. Their goalie made the save, but the rebound came into the slot where Matt Pothier fired it into the net. Halfway through the period, Everett got a break and took the lead. Andover did not let up and their hard work paid off at the two-minute mark. Hugh Maginnis swung Everett's net and sent a nice pass to Chris McAnally in the slot. McAnally banged the puck through a screen and tied the game. Everett tried hard to take the lead, but Goalie Berberian made some excellent saves to keep the game tied 2-2.

Andover 3 Wilmington 1

Andover beat a game Wilmington team in the Danvers League. Play was even in the first period until Wilmington broke on top halfway through on a perfectly executed 2-on-1. From that point on, Andover's defense of Joey Lyons, David Sopp, Tommy Tormey and John Gilmartin shut out Wilmington's offense. The shots that made it through were handled with ease by Goalie Berberian. Andover tied the game with 30 seconds left in the first period when Robert Stoltz hit Hugh Maginnis with a pass that led him around a Wilmington defenseman. He fired the puck from the top of the face-off circle and the goalie got a piece of it. Stoltz swooped in on the rebound and put it in the net ending the period at 1-1.

The second and third period saw momentum shift to Andover. As the second period closed, Andover scored when Tormey hit Pothier in the slot. Pothier fired the puck low to the glove side and beat their goalie. Andover took the lead and widened it as the third period opened. Maginnis slid the puck from behind the Wilmington net into the slot. Pat Breen fired a hard, low shot stick side that beat their goalie. Wilmington tried hard to come back, but goaltending and defense kept The game ended with outshooting Wilmington them off the scoreboard. Andover winning 3-1 and 18-15.

The LeSabre is a rather amazing phenomenon: a very practical automobile, built on a very practical idea.

It still offers all the room and comfort that people used to expect in their cars. It has ample space for six passengers, and their luggage. And its interior isn't merely big — it's big and plush.

Even so, the LeSabre is priced very little more than some very little cars.

And though it's a lot of automobile, the LeSabre doesn't consume a lot of fuel.

Cancer Information

The Massachusetts Cancer Information Service (CIS) has a new, easy to remember toll-free number, 1-800-CANCER.

This single number allows callers to pass it on to out-of-state relatives who will automatically be connected to the CIS office serving their area.

The local CIS was established in 1976 to provide Massachusetts residents with accurate up-to-date information on cancer. Counsellors provide information on the detection, diagnosis and treatment of all types of cancer.

They also provide referrals to community organizations such as hospice, home health and support groups. Publications on cancer and its treatment are available free of charge.

The CIS network is funded by the National Cancer Institute.

The most efficient protector of milk's vitamins is the paper carton. A gallon of milk gives you even more vitamins in a paper carton 2-pak than in clear plastic or glass jugs. The 2-pak is two paper half gallons joined together by a handle and sold as a gallon package. The paper carton preserves the milk's nutrition by protecting it from exposure to the store's dairy case lights, a thief of valuable vitamins, according to scientific studies.

Exhibit

"Drawn from Nature," an exhibit of 19th century zoological illustrations derived primarily from the archives of the Peabody Academy of Science, will open at the Peabody Museum of Salem on March 25. Reflecting the development of printing technologies during the era, the illustrations range from the hand-colored metal plate engravings of Alexander Wilson and John James Audubon through the lithographs that accompanied the reports of state and national surveys and the growth of institutions (such as the Agassiz Museum and the Smithsonian) to the wood engravings that adorned popular natural history books of the Victorian era. The exhibit concludes with a look at the impact of photography on zoological illustration.

Ann Blum, an archivist in the library of Harvard's Museum of Comparative Zoology and a member of the Peabody Museum's Natural History Visiting Committee, will be guest curator for the exhibit.

Mandala Folk Ensemble

The Mandala Folk Dance ensemble, a troupe with an international reputation, will perform at the R.A. Nock Middle School Auditorium in Newburyport on Saturday, April 9, at 8 p.m. The performance is being sponsored by the Society for the Development of Arts and Humanities of Greater Newburyport, Inc., a non-profit organization established in 1978 to further the arts in the Greater Newburyport area.

A SAAB 900 MAY NOT BE QUITE AS IMPRESSIVE
AS A SAAB TURBO.

Owning a Saab Turbo is a pretty good sign that you've arrived. But that doesn't mean you have to do without a Saab while you're getting there. Because there's also the Saab 900, a car that's about as close to our turbo as they come. For instance, you get the same front-wheel drive, four-wheel disc brakes and unit-body construction. And the 900's fuel-injected engine, says Road and Track, "makes some of the nicest sounds we've heard from a 4-banger-whooshing sounds that make you believe there's a turbo running somewhere." So before you resign yourself to a Sunbird or an Impala, test drive the 900. And sample a little of the good things to come.

Salon/Salon—The Salon With Class

"Salon/Salon haircutters are a group of professionals who do expert work," states Danny O'Connell, owner of Salon/Salon. "We are very credible; we know what we are doing."

O'Connell, who has been a professional haircutter for eleven years, serves clients from Washington, D.C., and New York City as well as local Andoverites. "We do big city work in Andover," he says. "But we're located in Andover because we want to be here."

Salon/Salon, located in the Sheraton Rolling Green on Lowell St., provides precision hair-cutting, hair coloring, permanent waving, makeup instruction and application, manicures, nail wrapping and sculpture and facial waxing.

The professional staff includes: Gary Gaudreau, Bruce Samia, Linda Lister, Holly Cashman, Lisa St. Gelais, Mary DiZazzo and Jimmy Girgenti.

O'Connell and associates have done national and international television commercials. The haircutting and styling and makeup for a Jordache jeans commercial is one example.

The look for spring and summer, O'Connell maintains, will be heads that are small and sleek. The length can be short or long, but definitely sleek. If your hair needs body, you can get a body perm to add fullness, but huge perms are out. To accompany this sleek new look, makeup will be soft and feminine—non-theatrical, but still very present. It is a total look that is adjusted to flatter the features of every face.

For the newest in a total spring or summer look, make an appointment at Salon/Salon. Open six days a week, the summer hours are from 9 a.m. until bookings run out. Closed at 6 p.m. on Wed. and Fri. Call 470-2500.

Special Needs Staff, Aides Reduced By Budget Cuts

The School Committee recently approved cuts in the number of hours that teachers' aides will be available in the classroom, along with reductions in Special Needs staffing.

Teachers' aides currently work nine hours per week per classroom group of approximately 25 students, a ratio of one aide to each 100 students. Last week's committee action will reduce aid time to seven hours, and raise the ratio to one aide to 125 students. Aides will not be assigned to specific classes, but will be assigned by each school administrator.

Rosemary Hempstead, representing the Andover Aides Association, urged the committee not to cut aide hours. "Aide time is really your biggest bang for the bucks," she said. "It's well worthwhile."

The cut was approved on a three-two vote, with Michael Giammusso and Susan Poore voting against a motion made by Donald Robb.

Poore had moved to table the decision until the administration could present a report on the impact that phasing out the West Traditional program — a decision made earlier in the meeting — would have on aide time. That motion was defeated.

Chairman Richard Neal asked the administration to "attend to any needs that might develop" as a result of phasing out the traditional program, and come back with recommended changes in aide time if necessary.

After a brief discussion, the committee also voted to cut Special Needs evaluation staffing from the current 6.2 to 5.2. Program Advisor Pamela Kvilekval told the committee that cut would make "strict compliance with the law" on meeting evaluation deadlines difficult, and the town would probably fail to make deadlines "for short periods from time to time."

Grange Plans Barn Sale

North Andover Grange is preparing for its annual Barn Sale at the Grange Hall, Olde Center, behind the Hay Scales Exchange, on Saturday, April 9.

A Barn Sale is an indoor flea market or mini-fair. Old and new articles will be on sale—antiques, dishes, bric-a-brac, books, silverware, small furniture and other miscellaneous items.

There will be a plant table with an array of spring flowers and house plants.

The ladies of the Grange will feature fresh baked cakes, cookies and other sweets at the bakery table.

There will be a craft table with a large assortment of hand-fashioned items.

Ellen Hayes is chairman, assisted by a committee. Anyone wishing to donate items for the sale may contact the chairman. The committee will arrange to pick up items that cannot be delivered to the hall.

A snack bar will be in operation throughout the day with hot coffee and donuts.

Admission is free.

Andover Education Association President Stephen Jankauskus cautioned the committee about making that cut, saying parents have a right to get evaluations within the deadlines required by law. "You will be in non-compliance," he said. "You can't ask parents to voluntarily give up their rights."

The committee also cut the counseling staff from 5 to 2.5, but maintained the Special Needs aides at 13.3, despite an administration recommendation that Special Needs aide staff be cut to 10.5.

Vicki Johnston of Salem Street, representing the 766 Advisory Council, told the board that cutting Special Needs aide time would be "untenable," particularly for safety reasons. "We don't want to lose aides," she said.

Diabetes Workshop

"Diabetes: The Disease and its Management," will be presented as a workshop and seminar series March through May by the University of Lowell Department of Continuing Education and the Clinical Laboratory Sciences Department.

The two U Lowell Departments, in cooperation with the Area Health Education Center will offer the five lecture program, free of charge as a public service for all professionals and other interested persons.

The series will open with a lecture on "How To Make the Most of Urine Testing," by Dr. Sandra Fessia of the U Lowell Department of Clinical Laboratory Sciences. The topics to be discussed include glucosuria, the types of tests for glucose and ketone bodies, proper use of test materials and the effects of drugs. The lecture will be followed by a workshop on "Urine Testing," demonstrating and interpreting various urine tests, with Prof. Kathleen Doyle, also of the U Lowell Department of Clinical Laboratory Sciences.

The program will begin at 6:30 p.m. in Weed Hall, Lecture Hall II with refreshments. The lecture is scheduled from 7 to 8 p.m. and the workshop will run from 8 to 10 p.m. on Tuesday, March 29.

DEDICATED AREAS

Did you ever go walking or play golf or tennis in a public park and wonder how the city ever acquired the park? If you look around, you might find a plaque or sign that says the park was given to the city by some individual. This is called, in real estate terms, a dedication.

A person may dedicate a portion of his land for various public purposes if he wants to. For example, he might allow a portion of his property for use as a road. When he dedicates this land - this is called "common law dedication" - the road may be nothing but a wide dirt and gravel path. The city may then accept it, pave it, and use it as a regular public street. In this instance, the person would actually own the land (the road), but the city would get an easement on the property for use as a street.

On the other hand, the builder of a subdivision might allocate a part of the tract as a public park. In this instance, it may be to his advantage to give the park to the city complete with a deed. One of the obvious reasons for doing this would be to eliminate the paying of taxes by the subdivision.

just in computer science, but in all subjects, by offering drill and practice, tutoring, simulations and microworlds, data and word processing resources, and information retrieval and storage.

Students should also learn about the computer as a "social force," he wrote: "how it fits into their world, past, present and future." They can also learn to use the computer as a "personal tool" for learning, writing, and communicating, among other areas; and as a "career tool" in writing, accounting, law, medicine, fine arts, and theology, among other fields.

Nearly 50 percent of the teaching staff is currently enrolled in inservice education programs to learn about computers, Mitsakos said, calling that an "enthusiastic response." Teachers are learning programming languages, word processing and applications, he indicated.

Poore said she was concerned that the staff is not sufficiently trained to use the proposed hardware. "My concern is that the staff has to be well-versed and have clear direction" for teaching with computers, she said.

She added that she does not believe it necessary to offer computer courses to every child in every grade to prepare the students for "adult life" or future careers, because more intensive training in later years could fill that need.

And Poore said that in light of other budget cuts — including the elimination of the West Traditional program at a $40,000 savings — "I think $148,800 is a lot of money. Special article or not, it's all tax dollars."

But Giammusso said the administration had presented a "well thought-out approach", and that computer education is necessary in the lower grades to "lay the groundwork" for courses in the higher grades by "relieving anxieties and fears" about computers.

Teachers' computer education, he added, is "an ongoing thing," saying teachers would learn from each other as well.

Deborah Blais of West Parish Drive told the committee that although she thinks "computers are wonderful," computer programs currently offered in the elementary grades are not "worth a hill of beans."

"I don't think the child has the fear of these machines as adults do," Blais said. "It seems like a lot of money to spend and get nowhere. Teachers have to have a lot more experience."

Neal responded that teachers are being trained to work with the new hardware.

Dr. Mitsakos noted that copies of the administration's report on phasing in computer education are available at Memorial Hall Library.

Spring Fashions Feature A Variety Of Lady-Like, Feminine Details

By Sue Aucella Deacon

It's clear that fashion's trend toward the lady-like will continue this spring, characterized by soft lines and feminine details in dresses, jackets and separates.

But the key word for the new season is choice: everything from hemlines to fit to colors come in a variety of looks, leaving you the freedom to choose what's best for you.

Silhouettes range from soft, full and easy to a fifties-inspired tailored and fitted. And combining the two is big news this spring — as in a generous shirt belted over a trim skirt.

Spring's colorings come in two varieties, too: choose from a palette of soft and flattering pastels including pink, gray, blue, peach, or striking brights like turquoise, orange, lavender. Perhaps the most dramatic — and classic — combination is black and white, newest this year when sparked with a splash of red.

Hemlines, too, are far from rigid. Most women may opt for a natural, mid-knee length, but straight skirts inch up a bit higher — and the more adventurous (or young) will reach for the mini, another look from the past making a big comeback.

Like last year, natural fibers are still important. Cotton, linen and silk demand a little more upkeep than man-made blends, but reward you with cool comfort and timeless good looks.

Good old denim is turning up everywhere, especially in worn-looking "stonewashed" and new colorful versions, in updated jackets, vests, minis, and all kinds of jeans.

Cotton sweaters are an especially popular choice, too, in all colors and styles, to slip on under a blazer or brighten up a spring skirt.

Summer suits are always right, and unmatched jackets remain a wardrobe staple as well. The relaxed, unconstructed blazer, a favorite from recent seasons, is versatile enough to look right over anything from skirts to walking shorts to jeans. Dresses with their own matching jackets, jackets worn with a scarf at the collar and fitted fifties-style jackets — some with peplums — are also among your jacket choices.

In dresses, the look is purely pretty, done in soft fabrics with feminine touches like ruffles, lace, and full sleeves: the Princess of Wales made pretty clothes popular last year, and her influence is still being felt. Even classic oxford-cloth shirtdresses are turning up with fuller skirts, smaller collars and lacy touches.

Looking for sportswear? You'll find colorful rugby shirts and full-blown blouses, comfortable elastic-waist pants, walking shorts along with shorts in all lengths, and soft corduroys.

"Activewear" is filling the stores, too — leotards and tights in bright solids, bold stripes and a variety of styles appealing enough to inspire anyone to sign up for an aerobics class.

Accessories complete the spring picture, with the focus very much on legs. Pale stockings in offbeat shades like pink, blue and lilac (or soft white) complement pale, silky dresses, while colorful knee socks make the most of mini skirts and walking shorts. Even shoes and sandals are appearing in the season's pale and bright colors.

Or turn attention upward with a jaunty hat, chunky jewelry, or an eye-catching belt to pull together your spring look — whatever you choose it to be.

Anton's Offers Some 'Tips On Fabric Care'

Here are some "Tips On Fabric Care" from John Anton's Cleaners of Andover, located at 357 North Main St. and at 114 Winthrop Avenue in North Andover:

Battle Mildew Now

Although it is usually quite visible, mildew may be lurking out of sight in clothing you are taking out of storage for use this spring and summer. If your stored clothes smell musty, you may well have a mildew problem.

Mildew forms on all types of fabrics and develops in storage areas where there is little light, poor ventilation and a warm, damp atmosphere. It is one of your worst enemies when it comes to clothing damage. Mildew can badly discolor clothes and eat into the fabrics enough to rot them.

If you didn't heed our advice to store clothing in a dry, clean storage area, don't despair. If the mildew hasn't set in too badly, we can probably clean the clothing in question and restore it to its original shape. Don't wait another day, though. Time works on mildew's side in the war against your clothing.

A Hanger Reminder

Here's a tip that bears repeating: Don't use the metal hangers we return your clothing on to store that clothing once you get it home. Those metal hangers are for your convenience when moving clothes from our place to yours.

As soon as you get home, remove any plastic bags from your clothes so that they can begin to breathe fresh air. Take everything off metal hangers. Use shaped hangers of plastic or wood for coats and jackets. Use specially designed hangers with metal clasps for skirts. Use any of the various designs of pant hangers for your slacks. One final tip...never hang sweaters on hangers of any design. They should be folded and placed flat in dresser drawers.

Don't Throw Out Deductions

One tax deduction almost every citizen can take advantage of is overlooked far too often. It is the deduction you can realize by donating your unneeded clothing to charity.

As you go through your winter wardrobe and prepare to clean and store things for next year, don't just dump all the things you don't want to keep. The IRS will allow deductions for it if you simply donate it to a charity of your choice.

Protect yourself by making an itemized list of the articles you donate. Estimate a current value for each item and ask a representative for the charity to sign your list as a tax record. You get a tax deduction and those less fortunate than yourself will get some much needed clothing. It's a good habit to get into.

That Fine Silk Touch

Silk is still the most attractive, elegant fabric used in men's neckties and women's scarves. The fine qualities of silk and its popularity make silk ties and scarves quite expensive, as you well know. Yet these clothing accessories are among the most overlooked when it comes to regular cleaning care.

At the prices you pay for silk ties and scarves, you simply can't afford not to give them regular professional care. One danger is that these accessories often don't appear soiled even when they are, because things like perfume and cologne, alcoholic beverages and body oils don't necessarily show on the fabric.

Invisible stains can do irreparable harm to fine silk. To keep your silk accessories looking their very best and lasting longer, bring them in today for our cleaning care. Then begin a policy around your home to have fine silks cleaned regularly. You'll notice the difference.

Soap Can Do You Dirty

Bar soap is made to clean your skin...not your clothes.

As a matter of fact, soap can actually be quite harmful to your clothing...especially to clothing made of silk or wool.

If you should spill a beverage or some fruit on your clothes, don't try to use soap to remove it. When you do so, the stain may appear to go away, but it's still there. If heat is applied to the garment later, the alkali in the soap will combine with the staining material to produce a permanent spot.

The best remedy is to bring the stained garment to us for professional cleaning care. Be sure to show us where the spot is and what the staining substance was. Don't let soap do you dirty.

A Cheery House For Spring

Take a good look around your house. What kind of impression do you get? Is it bright and cheerful...or dark, sullen and drab? Here are some hints to make your house come alive.

One of the easiest, least inexpensive ways to give your home a new look is to refresh your draperies and slipcovers with a thorough cleaning. Cooking oils from your kitchen, air pollutants from outdoors, and even sunlight can take their toll on the original brightness of those fabrics. Bring them all in to us for fast, experienced professional cleaning care.

Remember, if you have matching accessories...bedspreads that match curtains in a bedroom, for example, be sure to bring all the matching pieces in together to assure that they'll all get the same fresh new look from cleaning.

Finally, ask us about our water repellent finish for your draperies and slipcovers. Sound crazy? Well, the fact is that water repellent finishes also prevent many kinds of soils from embedding themselves into fabrics. This extra protection will allow longer use of household accessories before you need to have them cleaned again.

Bolder And Brighter Jewelry Is The Look For The '80's Says Nazarian Jewelers

Fashion jewelry is living up to its name this season with bold, eye-catching styles aimed at complementing newest clothing looks, according to Nazarian Jewelers, 35 Main St., Andover.

Larger earrings and pendants in bolder designs, and the tri-color combination—the brighter and richer colors of greens, reds and blues always surrounded with 14k gold luster—are popular.

Diamonds grouped with gemstones in a variety of styles make for the woman in the 1980's an investment in fashion.

The antique look—romantic treatment of gold settings using pearls, filigree and cameos, and dazzling evening jewelry of diamonds and gemstones—is very much in trend for current as well as future jewelry designs.

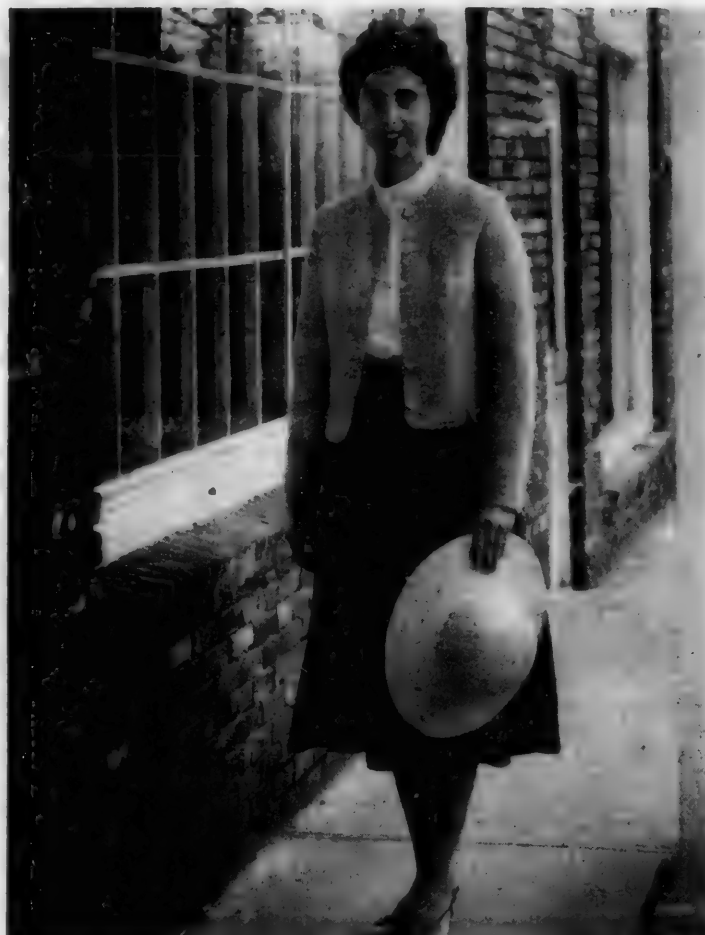

Gold's ability to serve as an accent with, or a background for, color is an important advantage in fashion today. Gold beads make an exciting contrast when mixed with colored beads and pearls. According to 'National Jeweler's Annual Fashion Guide,' the gold is used to intensify the glow of the colored beads. It is especially effective with soft colored beads, such as coral and amethyst, and bolder shades of lapis, onyx, malchite, garnet and others. Any combinations can be created with a variety in bead size and length.

New to accentuate the diamond and serve stud earrings is the gold jacket. The diamond takes on a whole new look when placed in a gold or a diamond and gold jacket. There are many different sizes and shapes to choose from. They are very fashionable for formal and informal wear. On the practical side, earring jackets couldn't be more important. Loops, drops and doughnuts of gold to wrap diamond or pearl studs are a natural choice for consumers.

Making wristwear news are bangle and chain bracelets. Twisted or flat link bangles are a strong accompaniment to this season's well mannered suits and sportswear. Tooled and etched surfaces—sometimes with areas of gold and stones combined—look appropriate with either casual or business attire. Some bracelets even have accents of pave diamonds or fancy-cut colored stones. The two-tone and tri-tone looks are especially new and popular.

Personalized jewelry has taken its place in today's jewelry market. Monogram pins, monogram buttons and gold signet rings are very fashionable. For the 1980's bride, the classic solitaire is still the overwhelming favorite. However, the woman of the '80's is looking for versatility in everything she buys.

Jane Batchelder models this peach Geiger jacket and Belle France print skirt for the Yankee Lady, 89 Main St., Olde Andover Village.

Make Way For Spring At Pappagallo

Bid farewell to the somber, serious discipline of winter. Spring is in fullbloom at Pappagallo, located at 93 Main St., Andover, in Olde Andover Village.

One of the most important statements this season is dramatically made in black and white. It's a classic combination. The look is dynamic and often accentuated with linear details and sculptured silhouettes. When white is the predominant choice, it is often punctuated in black or perhaps a splash of red.

Bright, bold colors are a welcome relief from winter greys, and there's a flourishing new collection of shoes, accessories and sportswear in a brilliant bouquet waiting to be picked!

Today's woman chooses direction over dictation in fashion. Choices in fashion, experimentation with color, hemlines, and accessories, etc., are the tools in developing a sense of style and a statement of individuality. The choices are many this spring of '83.

Soft, fluid, feminine lines are a favorite. They allow a freedom of movement that simplifies any lifestyle. For the working woman, the smart sophistication of a suit with a short cropped jacket can be the most versatile item in her wardrobe. An Austrian unlined wool jacket by Boos, available in white and pastels, detailed with pewter buttons and impeccably tailored, is a wise investment that will yield year round returns. It can be worn in early spring as an outer jacket or paired with a wool skirt when the air turns brisk.

Natural fibers offer comfort and wearability that more than justifies their popularity. A pot pourri of styles and colors in cotton, silk, and linen blends are among the collectables by Jeanner Pierre, Eagles Eye and Braemar. In addition to the startling brights is a palette of new soft brights in pearl grey, pink, ivory, peach and honey. Paired with thin wale corduroy slacks by David Brooks or a cotton print skirt by Susan Bee, these fashionable sweaters are just right for a casual day.

For dressier occasions, arrive in a crisp, cool Lanz sundress or a mini floral cotton frock by Samuel Blue. Mihang silk-like dresses are elegant and versatile with designs that range from the classic shirtwaist to the peplum waist line of the fifties.

Accessories are a vital part of any season. They are the wardrobe "stretchers" and can be an expedient source of revitalizing your less than new items in your wardrobe. Hats are returning to fashion and are being worn with confidence and style. Pappagallo provides an abundant collection of casual straws and panamas with detachable bands to be matched with your weekend wear; fine Italian straws that we will trim with the perfect silk flower to compliment a special outfit; and large, floppy, brimmed woven straws to shade the sun. To complete the look, short crocheted gloves are an exquisite detail for an important occasion.

Jewelry is unquestionably bold and bright this season. Wide cuff bracelets in hand painted woods, brass and enamel, large geometric earrings in primary colors make an impact. Unusual designs in natural shell, volcanic ash, corals, enamels and wood are all a way of expressing the lighter, more-rivorous moods of spring and summer.

Pappagallo presents a new collection of over thirty styles of shoes for the new season. Strappy sandals, classic pumps, canvas espadrilles in several new styles and many new casuals and dressy shoes of various heel heights are available. In addition to the basic color choices of navy, white, black and beige, is the excitement of red, turquoise, lavender and green.

Now is the time to spring into action! Discover the special world of color and imagination for a sensational spring!

Fabric Town Offers Largest Choice Of Fabrics

Now entering its seventeenth year, Fabric Town of Reading has grown to more than 16,000 square feet. There is now more space than ever for shopping in comfort, as well as attractive displays of the store's large array of fabrics, patterns, notions and trims.

The store also has one of the largest supplies of drapery and upholstery hardware in the area.

Fabric Town has moved its Home Decorating department upstairs, adjacent to the original store, in the former Reading Theatre building. The building has been modernized, and opens into the original Fabric Town, adding up to more than 10,000 square feet of fabrics on one floor.

The new sales floor features decorator fabrics for draperies, slip covers, reupholstery, shades, woven woods, custom made table pad covers, radiator covers, and drapery hardware — all arranged so that decorators can quickly see the entire selection. A complete in-stock wallpaper section, specializing in wallcovering to match decorator fabrics, is now available as well.

Knowledgeable decorators are always available to help with home decorating problems, along with Fabric Town's free Home Decorating Service. Fabric Town offers help to do-it-yourselfers, or handles the complete project for the homeowner in its own workrooms.

The main store entrance is at 545 Main St., (Route 28), Reading. The new Home Decorating entrance is at 557 Main St. Both stores are in one building, providing easy access to both.

A new "Instant Sewing Shop" has been added at Fabric Town for the busy woman whose time is limited, but who still wants to design her own fashions.

Ada Aucella, manager of the bridal department, has seen tremendous growth in that department in recent years. With the help of its New York office, Fabric Town serves the needs of brides and bridal parties, bringing a wide selection of the latest designer fabrics to Reading.

Catering to the needs of the home sewer along with those of tailors, teachers and other professionals, Fabric Town is equipped to sell on both a wholesale and a retail basis at a discount. Their chief product and the reason for the growth: quality and selection. Sewers from all across the country, as well as Canada, Bermuda and Chile, have either visited the store or written to request samples or make purchases, seeking the best in top quality fashion fabrics.

Upstairs and down, Fabric Town employs nearly 30 salespeople, plus the many others who work in their custom workrooms as installers, slipcover cutters and upholsters.

Help is always available to assist the shopper with any sewing problem, large or small. The store is locally owned and staffed. Bruce Slovin has joined the family business to help expand and manage the decorating center, along with Dawn Berman, Virginia Parsons and Daniel Webster. Ada Aucella is general manager of all fashion fabrics, as well as the bridal department.

The basement store at 6 Chapin Ave. now houses a classroom for sewing lessons with certified Home Economist Ruth Ann Haley, who teaches beginner to advanced sewing. Phyllis Kenson is now bringing her professional touch to a variety of craft and quilting classes. The basement store can be entered through either store, or the parking lot.

Fabric Town is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturdays. Call the store at 944-6996 for fashion fabrics and notions, or at 944-8766 for home decorating.

'Her Majesty' Boutique Features A New 'Size-Order' Service

Located on the Promenade Deck adjacent to the downtown Andover parking area, 'Her Majesty' boutique for women will special order fashions for customers in their exact size.

"Often," says Mrs. 'Honey' Hammersla, owner of the specialty shop since 1979, "a customer will find just her style, fabric and color, but not her exact size. With our personalized service, we will order the garment immediately, eliminating the need for extensive alterations."

'Her Majesty' carries a wide range of sizes, from Missy 8-20 to Half Sizes 14½ to 24½, in both casual and after-five dresses, sportswear and separates, in traditional and contemporary styles.

"Our image," Mrs. Hammersla says, "has changed and grown from that of a store featuring half-size fashion to a specialty boutique of sizes and styles for juniors, misses and half-sizes, alike."

Fashion buying is done by Mrs. Hammersla, who travels regularly to fashion centers throughout the United States to order for the shop. 'Her Majesty' carries lines from the finest fashion houses of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and Europe.

The store is located at 77 Main St. and is open Monday through Saturday from 9:30 to 5:30.

Get A Beautiful Tan At Sun Time Suntan Center

Get yourself looking healthy and tanned for the spring and summer at Sun Time Suntan Center in Olde Andover Village, Andover.

Owner Mat McGrath points out you can get a beautiful tan without any damage to skin and organism through the process offered at Sun Time.

The oxidation process is achieved by long-wave UV-light. This range of sunlight has no troublesome or harmful effects upon the skin or the rest of the organism. No reaction threshold is seen.

The darkening of the pigment takes place even during the irradiation without a latent waiting period. The browning effect can be seen immediately if melanin precursors are present, the UVA-dose is adequate and no oxidation-inhibiting factors develop.

UV-rays also lead to increased resistance to infectious and virus diseases. The blood content of natural defense substances is increased. The formation of antibodies gives the body increased resistance against virus diseases such as chicken pox, smallpox and measles. Extensive experiments have led to a reduction by a third in the liability to influenza, colds and rheumatic diseases.

So get down to Sun Time Suntan Center and get the beautiful tan you've been waiting for.

Makeup For A New Look At Merle Norman

Spring, like autumn, is a transition season. It's a time to cast off the enveloping defenses against the cold we've had all winter; time, perhaps, for a new hairstyle, a lighter, brighter look and outlook. Nothing does this like a new makeup look, says Merle Norman Cosmetics, 93 Main St., Olde Andover Village.

Fashion is giving us beautiful daydreams and cheerful colors this spring. Romantic florals are everywhere, sharing the limelight with bold geometrics. The blues are out front in importance, ranging from palest aquamarine to deep sea sapphire — and often paired with shrimpy pinks, rosy corals, sunny yellows and subtle greens.

With your change of season, try a new look in makeup — new eye appeal using more dramatic lining. Try your new spring look at Merle Norman — where you can learn how — free.

A Philosophy Proven Over 12 Years

Diet Center Believes That ...

1. Weight loss must be fast enough to keep motivation high. Very few people can adhere to a reducing diet for 30-50 weeks to lose 40 pounds (as an example). Even 20 weeks for a 20 pound loss is an excruciatingly long time for most. Women lose 3-4 pounds per week at Diet Center and men lose 4-6 pounds — and then IMPROVE their health.
2. Weight loss must be achieved using normal foods without the aid of drugs, chemicals or gimmicks. While it's true that weight can be lost with gimmick plans, fasting or fad diets, it is short term loss. A person can NOT go on eating that way for long without injuring health. Only by establishing sound eating habits can the loss be permanent — and the best time to establish those good habits is during the "highly motivated" reducing period. Trying to create new habits (a 2nd time) after the loss is almost always doomed to failure. Diet Center clients lose weight on a healthy, well balanced diet of normal food. Their good habits become established while they lose.
3. The dieter must learn to take responsibility for him/herself; to make choices and be in control. Our counselors help every step of the way. "MIRACLE FORMULAS" and "No choice" plans are doomed to failure when it comes to maintaining weight loss. In truth, they are a waste of time, energy & money.
4. Bad eating habits must be broken. Regular servings (no matter how small) of pasta, ice cream, alcohol, etc. do NOT break the habit. This is not to say you can never have them again — but you must learn to accept these types of foods as occasional treats after you've established good, healthy, "THIN" eating habits.

When you're ready to accept the above philosophy, you're ready for Diet Center and ready to CONTROL your weight for the rest of your life.

The Professional Look For The Executive Woman

The 10,000 women emerging yearly from graduate schools of business will help break new ground in management.

They can also be expected to break some rules of fashion and merchandising. Their code of dress is still evolving, but with central canons set.

As women assume managerial places once reserved for men, the question arises as to whether they are assuming men's clothing modes, too. Says a young woman M.B.A. at a New York investment-banking firm, "I always wear a suit. No one's ever written a dress code, but certainly men are required to wear suits, and successful ones always wear a dark suit with red striped tie. If they have to do it, I should too."

If women are the fashion clones of their male bosses, many argue, it is in self defense. Convention does not threaten.

"You have to have some rules," comments Phyllis Albertson, vice president of Associated Merchandising, a consultant group for many major department stores. "But if women are in successful positions and feel confident, they will express their individuality in their clothing."

What else is the professional woman conveying?

"She wears what I call authority clothing," suggests Joan Karron of J.P. Stevens. The style "emanates a presence, some kind of dignity and authority that commands the attention of whomever you're dealing with at a business level."

Typically, the women seen by one clothing consultant "don't want to be fashion plates. They want to look appropriately fashionable, but they do not want to seem avant-garde. They do not want the clothes to wear them."

The professional women's look is not mini-mens' wear, insists a merchandising analyst for New York clothier Paul Stuart.

"It's not just that she wants to wear the clothes that a man wears," she says. It's that she wants to wear the uniform of success. "Men do the same thing."
